- E. Where an application for variance is filed and a condominium development is located within 60 metres of the premises on which the sign is proposed to be erected in the case of application for variance respecting a first party sign, or within 120 metres of the premises on which the sign is proposed to be erected in the case of application for variance respecting a third party sign, or within 120 metres of the premises or defined area which is the subject of the proposed Signage Master Plan in the case of an application for variance with respect to a Signage Master Plan, the notice under Subsection D may be served on the condominium corporation at its most recent address for service or mailing address as registered under section 3 of the Condominium Act, 1998, instead of being served upon the owners of the units of the condominium development.
- F. A notice under Subsection D may be served:
- (1) On property owners within the applicable radius personally or by ordinary mail sent to the property owners' last known address, and if the notice is served by ordinary mail, the property owners shall be deemed to have been served with the notice on the fifth day after the day of mailing;
 - (2) On the ward councillor by any means; and
 - (3) To the mailing addresses of residential and business tenancies within the applicable radius personally or by ordinary mail, and if the notice is served by ordinary mail, service shall be deemed to have been made on the fifth day after the day of mailing.
- G. Where an application for variance from this chapter is made to permit the erection and display of a first party sign or signs, the notice under Subsection D shall contain the following information:
- (1) A statement that the application for variance shall be considered by the Chief Building Official;

TORONTO MUNICIPAL CODE
CHAPTER 694, SIGNS, GENERAL

- (2) A statement that the recipient of the notice may submit written comments or any other documentation to the Chief Building Official regarding the application for variance;
 - (3) The date by which any written comments or documentation must be submitted to the Chief Building Official;
 - (4) The date by which the Chief Building Official will make a decision on the application for variance which shall be at least 30 days from the date the application was filed; and
 - (5) A statement that the recipient of the notice may request in writing, prior to the date described in Subsection G(4), that the person be served with notice of the Chief Building Official's decision on the application for variance.
- H. Where an application for variance from this chapter is made to permit the erection and display of a first party sign or signs, any person may, within 30 days from the date the application was filed:
- (1) Submit written comments or any other documentation to the Chief Building Official regarding the application for variance; and
 - (2) Request in writing that the person be served with notice of the Chief Building Official's decision on the application for variance.
- I. Where an application for variance from this chapter is made to permit the erection and display of a third party sign, or signs, or a third party sign or signs and first party sign or signs, the notice under Subsection D shall contain the following information:
- (1) A statement that the application for variance shall be considered by the Sign Variance Committee;
 - (2) A statement that the recipient of the notice may submit written comments or any other documentation to the Sign Variance Committee regarding the application for variance;
 - (3) A statement that the recipient of the notice may appear at the hearing of the application to make submissions before the Sign Variance Committee regarding the application for variance; and
 - (4) The time and location of the hearing before the Sign Variance Committee at which the application for variance will be considered.
- J. In the case of an application for variance from this chapter to permit the erection and display of a first party sign or signs, written notice of the Chief Building Official's decision shall be served on the applicant, the property owner, the ward councillor and any other person who requested he or she be served with notice of the decision in accordance with Subsection G(5) and Subsection H(2).

- K. Any person served with notice of the Chief Building Official's decision on an application for variance from this chapter to permit the erection and display of a first party sign or signs may appeal the Chief Building Official's decision to the Sign Variance Committee by filing the notice of appeal in the form and manner approved by the Chief Building Official and paying the non refundable fee prescribed in Chapter 441, Fees and Charges, within 20 days of service of the notice of decision.
- L. Where an application for variance from this chapter is made to permit the erection and display of a third party sign or sign, or where the decision of the Chief Building Official on an application for a variance from this chapter to permit the erection and display of a first party sign or sign has been appealed, any person may:
- (1) Submit written comments or any other documentation to the Sign Variance Committee regarding the application for variance; and
 - (2) Appear at the hearing of the application to make submissions before the Sign Variance Committee regarding the application for variance.
- M. In the case of an application for variance from this chapter to permit the erection and display of a third party sign or signs, or an application for variance from this chapter to permit the erection and display of first and third party signs, or in the case of an appeal to the Sign Variance Committee of the Chief Building Official's decision on an application for variance from this chapter to permit the erection and display of a first party sign or signs, written notice of the decision of the Sign Variance Committee shall be served on the applicant, the property owner, the ward councillor, any person who submitted documentation to the Sign Variance Committee with respect to the variance application, and any person who appeared before the Sign Variance Committee at the hearing of the variance application.
- N. A notice of decision under Subsections J or M may be served personally or by ordinary mail, and if the notice is served by ordinary mail, it shall be deemed to have been served on the fifth day after the day of mailing.
- O. Upon considering an application for a variance from this chapter to permit the erection and display of a first party sign, the Chief Building Official may issue a decision to:
- (1) Grant a variance;
 - (2) Grant a variance with conditions; or
 - (3) Refuse to grant a variance.
