Toronto Ward Boundary Review

The Toronto Ward Boundary Review is looking at the size and shape of Toronto's wards. A public meeting schedule has been announced with 12 locations across the City, starting Sept 16. The purpose of the public meetings is to gather feedback on 5 options for new ward boundaries in Toronto. The meetings will include a presentation of the options, followed by a facilitated discussion. Feedback from the meetings and survey will inform the Final Ward Boundary Review Report. This Report will include a recommended option and be presented to the Executive Committee and City Council in May 2016.
