Jane's Walk

Saturday, May 5, 2011 at 1:00 p.m.

Jane Jacobs was a famous urbanologist who lived in Toronto, a person who was passionate about protecting and enhancing cities from unbridled growth. She pinpointed the existence of thriving neighbourhoods as the essential building block ensuring that cities were liveable and dynamic entities.

Your local residents' association, SAHRA, has organized a walk-about in our neighbourhood to make residents more aware of the hidden gems in our backyard. Knowing your neighbourhood is a key step to wanting to protect and enhance it.

Please join SAHRA on Saturday, May 5th for our third Jane Jacobs tour as we walk through the neighbourhood and visit two sites – Havergal College and the Bedford Glen Condominiums. We will gather at Havergal College on Saturday, May 5th at 1:00 p.m. in the parking lot to begin the tour. Come join us and show you care about this wonderful neighbourhood we live in.

You can preregister by sending an email to sahratoronto@rogers.com giving your name and the number of people that will be attending.

Make sure your car is locked

There have been several reportings of unlocked cars being burgled during the night. They like to find parking money, cellphones, sunglasses and any other valuables left in the car or in the trunk. You shouldn't leave house keys in the car. It's easy to forget to lock the car....just that once. Perhaps set up a procedure each night that you double-check that the door is in fact locked using your remote.
